Features / Comments

If you after a small hatchback that frugal on fuel, easy to park and has a bit of zippiness then look no further than this great looking 2017 Nissan Note X.

Showcasing some of the latest in car technology such as Lane Departure Warning, Frontal Collision System, Idling Stop Technology, ESC and ISOFIX Child Seat Anchor Points, this Nissan Note X is a great hatchback for tootling around town and safe for the growing family.

Cheaper than a Suzuki Swift, this Nissan Note is driven by a 1.2 litre chain driven engine with a great fuel rating returning an average of 5.2L per 100km making this super fuel efficient and lessening your trip to the fuel pump.

Standout in Red, it also features ABS Brakes, ESC, Dual Airbags, Parking Sensors and more!
